

Top Tips

Questions for parents/carers to consider asking their child's new school

- What does 'inclusion' mean to you as a school?
- Who is the Special Educational Needs Coordinator?
- How and when are pupils offered additional support?
- Will there be extra adults working with my child?
- How does 'pastoral care' operate in the school?
- Who is responsible for Educational Health and Care Plans (EHCPs) and writing one page profiles (or equivalent)?
- How is progress of the one page profile reviewed and who will be involved?
- What homework support would be available for my child?
- How does the school communicate with parents of children with additional needs?
- What support will be in place for new pupils with additional needs?
- How would my child be encouraged to make new friends?
- How would my child be encouraged to be independent?
- Are other arrangements available for lunch and break times?

Want to know more?

Visit the Transition webpage on Cornwall Council's SEN File to find out more about the services and support we offer.